

Loonie

Canadian one dollar coin

Term

2-4.....
Anglophone.....
Bathroom/Washroom.....
Boxing Day.....
Chesterfield.....
Chinook.....
Chocolate Bar.....
Double/Double.....
Duo-Tang.....
Eaves Troughs.....

Meaning

A Case of 24 Beer.
A Canadian who's native or first language is English
Public toilet or lavatory in Britain.
The day after Christmas. An official Canadian holiday.
Another name for sofa or couch.
Warm, dry wind.
Candy bars are called chocolate bars in Canada.
A cup of coffee from Tim Horton's with two creams and two sugars.
A paper notebook.
Channels that attach to the underside of the roof of a house to drain rainwater. Known to most Americans and Britons as gutters.

EH	An agreement ("That was a good game last night, eh?"). Frequently mis-represented as A, or hey.
Ensuite	A bathroom attached to a bedroom.
Francophone	A Canadian who's native or first language is French.
Garburator	A garbage disposal unit located beneath the drain of a kitchen sink.
Homo Milk	Whole milk (short for homogenized).
Hydro	Electricity.
Knapsack	Backpack.
Kraft Dinner	Kraft macaroni and cheese. Sometimes called "Krap Dinner" or "KD".
Loonie	Canadian one dollar coin.
Mickey	13 ounce bottle of liquor.
Molson Muscle	Beer Belly - a large tummy blamed on excessive beer drinking.
Newfie	A colloquial, often derisive term used to describe one who is from Newfoundland and Labrador. Historically used with light humor in "Newfie Jokes", similar to "Dumb Blonde Jokes". The use of the word is now considered to be offensive and in very bad taste
Parkade	Parking garage.
Pencil Crayon	Colored pencil.
Pop	Soft drink or soda pop.
Poutine	A French Canadian dish with french fries, cheese curd and lots of gravy.
Rotten Ronnies	McDonald's Restaurant.
Runners	Sneakers or running shoes.
Serviette	Table napkin.
Smarties	A candy with a hard outer coating over tasty chocolate.
Toonie	Canadian two dollar coin.
Timbits	A brand name of donut (doughnut) holes made by Tim Horton's.